

SIX MILE POST

Weekly Newsletter

The Student Voice

Since 1980

NEWS:

Search for new president underway

February 21, 2022

By: Brandon Dyer

A search for someone to fill the role of Georgia Highlands president has officially begun nine months after the departure of former president Don Green.

The Board of Regents named the members of the two committees that will oversee the search...

OPINION:

Should online students be exempt from in-person activities?

February 21, 2022

By: Kimberly Lyons

A situation was brought to my attention recently caused me to question– is it acceptable to require assignments for classes or student jobs to be completed on-site from online students?...

ENTERTAINMENT:

‘Percy Jackson and the Olympians’ gets a do-over

February 21, 2022

By: Victoria Bisette

“Percy Jackson and the Olympians,” a New York Times best-selling book series written by Rick Riordan, has been greenlit for a TV series adaptation that will stream on Disney+. This is the second time the book series will be adapted since the movies that hit theaters in 2010 and 2013 respectively...

SPORTS:

Batter up: Softball with Sloan

February 28, 2022

By: Abigail Henderson

GHC softball head coach Savannah Sloan says that she makes sure her players understand the importance of academic achievement.

“What you do off the field directly translates on the field,” Sloan said...